

Copyright & Intellectual Property Notice

Last Updated: 8 July 2026

Ownership

Wingman, including its software, source code, user interface, graphics, icons, branding, logos, documentation, designs and original content, is owned by the developer of Wingman and is protected by Australian and international copyright, trademark and intellectual property laws.

All rights are reserved.

Permitted Use

Users are granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use Wingman for personal, lawful purposes in accordance with the Terms of Service.

No ownership rights are transferred to users.

Restrictions

Except where permitted by law, you must not:

- copy or reproduce the App;
 - reverse engineer or decompile the software;
 - redistribute the App or its assets;
 - modify or create derivative works;
 - remove copyright notices or branding;
 - use Wingman's branding without written permission.

User Data

Users retain ownership of the roster information and personal content they import into Wingman.

By importing data into the App, you grant Wingman only the limited rights necessary to display, process and (where enabled) synchronise that information.

Wingman claims no ownership over your roster data.

Third-Party Intellectual Property

Roster information, airline names, airport names, aircraft types and other third-party intellectual property remain the property of their respective owners.

Their inclusion within Wingman does not imply endorsement, affiliation or sponsorship.

Feedback

If you voluntarily provide suggestions, feature requests or feedback, you grant Wingman a perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free licence to use that feedback to improve the App without obligation or compensation.

Contact

Questions regarding copyright or intellectual property may be directed to the support contact listed within Wingman.
